Shinto In Everyday Life

We will start our meeting with an engaging discussion on Shinto traditions and their significant influence on Japanese culture. We'll explore various cultural practices and then create traditional origami known as Shide, the striking zig-zag paper streamers found at shrine entrances. We will then take time to write our wishes on wooden votive tablets called Ema. We look forward to seeing you and sharing this enriching experience together!

May Meeting Location:

Aichi International Plaza-10:30am

2 Chome-6-1 Sannomaru, Naka Ward, Nagoya,
Aichi 460-0001

Hula Dance Experience

Hula is a beautiful Hawaiian dance that brings to life the rhythms of chant (oli) and song (mele). It was created by the Native Hawaiians who first settled in the lovely Hawaiian Islands. Hula is not just about dancing; it's a vibrant expression of culture and history!

Member Spotlight

Manisha Kundu

Hello,

My name is Manisha Kundu. I am from Pune city in India. I have a PhD in Physics with specialization in semiconductor materials and worked as a scientist at research institutes in Tsukuba city, Japan for almost two decades. Now I am leading a slow life with my Japanese husband and eight cats in Ichinomiya city in the suburbs of Nagoya. I have lived in Japan for about 28 years and appreciate the culture and traditions here.

I have been a member of CCEA for over two years. I am a board member and one of the leaders of the interest group 'Hiking and Day Trips' since January. I enjoy participating in various interest groups activities and love making new friends from different cultures.

Join us if you are in Aichi prefecture and have a wonderful time with CCEA.
