October General Meeting

Join us for our October 2nd CCEA General Meeting at Will Aichi for a fun, creative afternoon of making your own unique project! This month, we'll be learning the art of wood burning with a workshop led by crimo. Their philosophy is all about making creativity feel approachable, enjoyable, and rewarding, regardless of your previous experience or artistic ability.

During the workshop, we will create our own wood burning projects with guidance from the instructor. This is an opportunity to experiment, learn a new skill, and enjoy making something with your own hands! While the wood burning activity is limited to members who previously RSVP'd, everyone is welcome to attend the general meeting, even if you are not participating in the activity.

Please bring 2,000 yen participation fee. Exact cash is appreciated!

Member Spotlight

Eva Tagiri

Hi everyone, I'm Eva Tagiri. I'm originally from the Czech Republic and moved to Nagoya last year.

I work as a translator and interpreter, but my job can take me in all sorts of directions — from editing books and teaching to helping at events and showing groups around Japan. I like that no two weeks are quite the same.

Outside of work, I love traveling, especially to places with an interesting history or story behind them. Recently, I visited a JAXA rocket launch site, which was one of the more unusual stops on my travels.

Are you ready to launch an impactful new group? Contact us for more details on turning your ideas into action!
